Rules: (taken from Junior ISAC handbook, 2017)

- 20 minute games with 5-10 minute break in between games
- 2 innings required per game
 - If there is time for additional game time, do not score the next innings. Only score the first two innings.
- Players have 3 attempts to hit the ball off the Tee and into the field of play. For the sake of participation, if they can't hit the ball off the tee, they can throw the ball into the field of play. But, let's hope it does not come to this.
- Batters and runners can be out in 4 ways:
 - a) Struck out" - did not hit the ball off or in fair territory in 3 attempts;
 - b) Caught out (fly ball) in fair or foul territory;
 - c) Thrown out at a base (ball gets to base before runner);
 - d) "Tagged out"- fielder touching runner with ball or hand holding ball before runner gets to base.
- At home base there will be the Tee and Home base. Runner must run and touch home base with their foot. Not run and touch the tee. This is for safety as the catcher will be at the tee.
- No "3 outs" rule. All 9 batters bat. Last batter wears a bib. Play finishes when back catcher (4th baseman) tags the tee (or puts foot on tee with ball in hand). If ball is caught runners can tag up and continue to run until ball is at tee or back catcher puts foot on tee with ball in hand.
- Runners on bases may not leave the base until the batter has struck at the ball. At no time can two runners be on the same base. Advancing runner is out. No stealing and no sliding are allowed.
- A batter throwing the bat in a dangerous manner shall be called out.
- Fielders- When the batter is swinging at the ball:
 - a) Fielders must field in orthodox fielding areas, with only 1 player inside the bases (pitcher). The pitcher is name of the position within the diamond despite Tee ball not actually having a pitcher.
 - b) Fielders should be reasonably set in their positions. Eg: out fielders should not be running.
- When the batter is ready to hit the pitcher must have one foot on the pitching rubber or roughly within the middle of the diamond. Only the pitcher is allowed in the diamond when ball is hit.
